

Maryland Lease Non-Renewal Letter

General template, not legal advice. Have a Maryland attorney review before use. Last reviewed October 29, 2026.

Before you send this: in most places a landlord may decline to renew a lease at the end of its term. Some states and cities limit that with just cause rules, longer notice for long tenancies, or relocation payments. A non-renewal can never be retaliation for a complaint or repair request, or based on a protected characteristic.

Local just cause or tenant protection rules in Maryland: Some local governments, including Montgomery County and the City of Takoma Park, have their own rent stabilization laws with yearly limits and notice rules. (Local ordinances)

Retaliation rules in Maryland: A landlord may not sue for possession, raise rent, cut services or end a periodic tenancy because a tenant made a good faith complaint, joined a tenant group or used a legal remedy; actions more than six months later are not presumed retaliatory. (Md. Code, Real Property 8-208.1)
