

New York Lease Termination Letter

General template, not legal advice. Have a New York attorney review before use. Last reviewed October 29, 2026.

Use Version A when the landlord is ending the tenancy and Version B when the tenant is. Keep a copy and proof of delivery. This letter does not replace an eviction notice for unpaid rent or a lease violation, which has its own rules.

Version A: landlord to tenant

Date

Tenant name or names

Property address and unit

Lease or rental agreement date

Dear _____ (Tenant name),

This letter is written notice that your tenancy at _____ (Property address and unit) will end on _____ (Termination date). Please move out and return all keys by 11:59 p.m. on that date.

Reason for ending the tenancy: _____ (Reason, such as lease expiring and not renewed, owner move in, or sale. Write "not required" only where state and local law allow ending without a reason).

This notice is given at least _____ (Days of notice given) days before the termination date, which meets the notice required by your lease and by New York law. If a local ordinance requires relocation help or a specific notice form, it is attached.

Notice to end a month-to-month tenancy: _____ (check the rule in New York)

Before you leave, please remove all belongings, clean the home, and send us your forwarding address in writing. You may ask for a walk-through inspection before move-out; please call _____ (Phone) to schedule it. We will return your security deposit, less any lawful deductions with an itemized list, within the time New York law requires.

Deposit return deadline in New York: The landlord must return the deposit, minus lawful deductions, within 14 days after the tenant moves out. (General Obligations Law section 7-108)

Rent remains due through the termination date. If you have questions, contact _____ (Landlord contact name, phone and email).

Sincerely,

Landlord or agent signature

Version B: tenant to landlord

Date

Landlord or manager name

Landlord notice address

Property address and unit

Dear _____ (Landlord name),

Please accept this letter as my written notice that I will end my tenancy at _____ (Property address and unit) and move out on or before _____ (Move-out date). This gives at least _____ (Days of notice given) days' notice, as my lease and New York law require.

If I am ending a fixed-term lease early, the reason is: _____ (Reason, if any, such as active military orders or another protected reason under state law). Supporting documents are attached where the law requires them.

Early termination for military service in New York: A tenant entering military service, or getting orders to move, can end a residential lease early with written notice and a copy of the orders. (Servicemembers Civil Relief Act (50 U.S.C. 3955) and New York Military Law)

Early termination for domestic violence survivors in New York: A survivor of domestic violence who fears staying can end the lease with written notice of a date at least 30 days away, then provide documentation such as an order of protection within 25 days. (Real Property Law section 227-c)

Please send my security deposit and any itemized deductions to my forwarding address: _____ (Forwarding address). I would like to schedule a move-out inspection; I can be reached at _____ (Tenant phone and email).

Sincerely,
